Early Literacy Activities:

- Talk about the names of favorite cookies. For example: %chocolate chip+, %gingerbread+, and %sugar+. Sound out the different parts of the word %choc-o-late chip+or %gin-ger- bread+. Clap while saying them separately and then together again, first slowly and then faster.
- Help your child find things that begin with the %C+-+cuh+sound. Look for items such as cup, computer, cake, candle, crib, etc. Also introduce the concept that the letter %c+can sometimes sound like an %s+ too. Some examples to use are: circle, cinnamon, and circus.
- When you are baking together, ask your child to help you remember the ingredients and the steps in preparing the cookie dough. Ask your child, %What did we do first?+ %What came next?+This will help your child learn the parts of a story (beginning, middle, and end).

Songs and fingerplays to share:

Cookie Poem

Here's some cookies just for you.
Made with love and some flour too.
I know it's not much,
But it's the thought that counts,
Just so you know that you are loved,
Ounce for ounce.

Five Little Cookies (count on fingers)

Five little cookies with frosting galore
Mother ate one and then there were four
Four little cookies two and two you see
Father ate one and then there were three
Three little cookies but before I knew
Sister ate one and then there were two
Two little cookies yum yum yum
Brother ate one and that left one
One little cookie here I come
I ate it and now there are none!

Five Little Cookies (a counting rhyme)

Five little cookies in a bakery shop,
Shining bright with the sugar on the top.
Along comes (child's name) with a nickel to pay.
He/she buys a cookie and takes it away.
(continue with four, three, two, and one)

C is for Cookie

C is for cookie
That's good enough for me
C is for cookie
That's good enough for me
C is for cookie
That's good enough for me
Oh, cookie, cookie, cookie
Starts with C!

Animal Crackers

Oh once I ate a lion, and then a tall giraffe
And when I ate the elephant, he really made me laugh!
Well, you may think I'm silly, but I'm telling you true
They were animal crackers and you can eat them too!

Making Cookies (suit actions to words)

I am making cookie dough
Round and round the beaters go
Add some flour from a cup
Stir and stir the batter up
Roll them, cut them, nice and neat
Put them on a cookie sheet
Bake them, count them, 1 2 3
Serve them to my friends for tea

I Wish I Were

Oh, I wish I were a little cookie crumb, cookie crumb,
Oh I wish I were a little cookie crumb, cookie crumb.
I'd go crumbly, crumbly, crumbly
Over everybody's tummy.
Oh, I wish I were a little cookie crumb, cookie crumb.

Who Took the Cookies? (a call and answer game)

Who took the cookies from the cookie jar?

_____ (Name) took the cookies from the cookie jar!

Who me? Yes You!

Couldn't be! Then Who?

_____ (Name) took the cookies from the cookie jar!
